Bob and the crew continue to work for you...

Bob and the team he collaborates with always have your best interests in mind. Whether it's attending guides' meetings early in the morning, checking the gear to ensure good working condition, or making sure your post-hike reservation is taken care of, they're working for you. Years of experience combined with a can-do attitude makes for a group of individuals you can count on to make sure every detail of your trip has been considered and dealt with. Heli Canada Adventures aims to please, and a happy and safe customer is their #1 goal.

To book, just drop us a line at info@helicanada.com or 1-888-837-5417.

The Fun Continues...

Greetings to all our winter sports enthusiasts out there! Revelstoke Ski Touring is enjoying a brisk business this season with an impressive amount of snowfall in the area. Mother Nature is continuing to provide, and the skiing is better than ever. It's definitely not too late to book a ski vacation with us, whether what you're looking for is a ski touring adventure, an introduction to powder skiing course or an avalanche course – we've got something for everyone. Don't hesitate to call us for details or suggestions for your best-ever winter outdoor experience.

By the way, did you know that we offer heli snowshoeing from April 1st to May 30th? It's a great way to still enjoy the beautiful snow later on in the season. The latest technology in snowshoes allows for light and easy travel, and you can't beat the spectacular helicopter ride each morning to start your day. Look at helicanada.com for details, then contact us and we'll help you organize your 3- or 4-day trip with friends (new or old) or family.

We'd like to introduce you to our latest addition to the avalanche education courses we offer at Revelstoke Ski Touring. We have now finished training for the Companion Rescue Skills course. This course is suitable for all outdoor backcountry recreationists: skiers, snowboarders, snowmobilers and snowshoers. This one-day course builds on the knowledge obtained

Tips from the Team:

A couple more gems around Revelstoke that we recommend you check out!

1. Revelstoke Museum and Archives: Originally built in 1926 as a federal building, this museum oozes history from the moment you walk through the doors. Learn about the fascinating history of your favourite ski town on a lazy afternoon during your trip.

2. Roxy Theatre: The little theatre that has it all, including the tastiest popcorn made with heart-healthy oil! Built in 1904 as a hardware store and converted into a theatre in 1937, Roxy Theatre offers the latest blockbusters and more. Check out their website for more details

INTERESTING TIDBITS . . . DID YOU KNOW?

The Friends of Mount Revelstoke and Glacier (FMRG) have created a yearly film festival, held in Revelstoke, to showcase short films featuring outdoor adventures of any kind, celebrating Canadian mountain culture at its finest. Individuals are invited to submit short films, with categories including youth, novice or professional. If grabbing a camera is not your thing, then come to the Roxy theatre to view the resulting efforts of sports enthusiasts from all across Canada. The second annual festival this year is being held from February 10 – 12, 2012.

from the AST 1 course. Learning how to avoid an avalanche is top priority, but what if it's unavoidable? What then? Companion Rescue Skills will teach you how to prioritize your actions after an avalanche as well as apply search and rescue techniques. Contact us for more details or to sign up for the course.

Things are busy as usual in our Revelstoke office, and we're pleased as punch that our summer website is doing so well since its launch in December. Check us out at helicanada.com. We have a great variety of summertime adventures to offer you, all of which are run by top-notch professionals in the field. These are people who love what they do, and a perfect workday for them is seeing the smile on your face as you finish a satisfying day of heli hiking, mountaineering or rock climbing. We're finding that guests are combining heli hiking and heli mountaineering more and more, even those who are novices! So grab your courage and sense of adventure, and let our seasoned guides show you a new way of enjoying the mountains of British Columbia.
