The beautiful Selkirk and Monashee mountain ranges around Revelstoke, British Columbia, will be the setting for this special heli snowshoe adventure. The Canadian Rockies offer winter at its most stunning: towering, snow-sculpted peaks; huge tracts of untouched powdery snow...this is backcountry wilderness that the caribou and the wolf call home, and we know it well. You'll have time to admire the views, identify animal tracks in the snow, and capture it all on camera .
